It is a time to be reflective and thankful

All of us at Sammy P Auction Services would like to thank our friends, patrons & the contractor community for the warm welcoming, support and guidance as we re-entered the auction business earlier this year. It's nice to be back as part of the family that cared so much for each other through multiple decades. We look forward to enjoying time together while doing business, as we plan and discuss how we can build and benefit our futures through the mutual sharing of knowledge and experience.

Have a Safe and Happy Thanksgiving
